

FARMERS FOR CLIMATE SOLUTIONS

Contractor Confidentiality Agreement

I understand that I have a legal obligation to protect all personal information and all other kinds of confidential information (whether in written, verbal, electronic or other form) that is shared with me through the FaRM program.

I will safeguard the trust and confidence of FaRM participants by acting with integrity at all times with respect to the personal information obtained in the course of my contracted activities with Farmers for Climate Solutions and SeedChange. Confidentiality shall be strictly observed. No information of a confidential or proprietary nature provided by any participant, either verbally or in writing, shall be disclosed to anyone other than members of the FaRM program administrative team. This obligation shall extend indefinitely.

I agree to use FaRM participant's personal information only for the work I have been hired to complete within the bounds of the contract. I understand that all confidential and personal information shared with me shall remain the sole property of Farmers for Climate Solutions and SeedChange. I am aware that inappropriate disclosure or fraudulent use of confidential or personal information could result in prosecution.

I acknowledge that as a contractor for Farmers for Climate Solutions and SeedChange, I will ensure any employee, partner organization, volunteer, consultant, contractor or other third party service provider that are given access to FaRM participant's personal information through our organization, have agreed to keep that information confidential indefinitely and to process it for us based on our instructions and for no other purpose.

By my signature below I acknowledge that I have read and will abide by this Agreement. I understand that the obligations of this Agreement supersede and are in addition to any other confidentiality statements I may have contractually agreed to in relation to the FaRM program. This Agreement takes effect upon signing and will continue even after my work with the FaRM program ends. Furthermore, I agree to abide by this Agreement for the duration of my participation in the FaRM program and to indefinitely keep confidential all deliberations and participant details.

Name

Signature

Organization name

Date